Roger Miller and Cheryl Glidden attended the meeting on behalf of the Dundy County Senior Center. They thanked the commissioners for financial support in previous years and shared some of the activities about the center. The duo requested financial support again this year at which point Commissioner Keiser suggested an executive session. At 9:02 am, Commissioner Keiser made a motion to go into executive session for discussion and to protect the reputation of the board of commissioners, county attorney, the Dundy County Senior Center, Cheryl Glidden and Roger Miller, seconded by Chairman Tecker. Ayes:

Unanimous. At 9:13 am, Commissioner Keiser motioned to exit executive session, seconded by Chairman Tecker. Ayes: Unanimous. Commissioner Keiser made a motion to give $5,000 in financial support to the Dundy County Senior Center, seconded by Chairman Tecker. Ayes: Unanimous.

The commissioners looked over the Year-End Certification of County Highway Superintendents. Commissioner Keiser made a motion to adopt Resolution 76-2026-20 the signing of the Year-End Certification of County Highway Superintendent 2026, seconded by Commissioner Richard. Ayes: Unanimous.

The next item on the agenda pertained to county employees that are called out for emergency purposes, such as fighting fires. Chairman Tecker stated that a previous supervisor allowed road employees to leave for those emergency purposes and continue to be paid until the end of their regular workday. Commissioner Keiser confirmed this had been the practice in the past and the commissioners agreed that it shall continue this way going forward.

County Attorney Arlan Wine presented an MOU dealing with the Juvenile Services Aid Program. This program reimburses the county for a portion of Ms. Karen Baker's wages for work performed on their behalf. Mr. Wine asked if the commissioners were willing to continue being part of the MOU. Commissioner Keiser made a motion to sign the Memorandum of Understanding Between Arthur, Chase, Dundy, Furnas, Hayes, Hitchcock, Keith, Perkins, and Red Willow Counties for Community-Based Juvenile Services Aid Program, seconded by Chairman Tecker. Ayes: Unanimous.

Commissioner Keiser discussed a line-of-credit application from Hi-Line Co-op. Hi-Line has taken over the pumping station in Haigler and requires this application for road employees to continue to obtain fuel at that site. Commissioner Richard made a motion to proceed with the line-of-credit application from Hi-Line Co-op, seconded by Commissioner Keiser. Ayes: Unanimous.

County Attorney Arlan Wine presented an Interlocal Agreement that had been discussed at the previous meeting. A motion was made by Chairman Tecker to approve the Interlocal Agreement by and between Dundy County and Adams County, seconded by Commissioner Keiser. Ayes: Unanimous.

The following topic on the agenda was a letter received from the City of Benkelman pertaining to ceasing the C&D Site agreement. Commissioner Keiser felt there should be a joint meeting to iron out details pertaining to the request in the City's letter. The meeting was set up via phone for Wednesday, November 4, 2026, at 8:30 am in the annex building conference room.

County Attorney Arlan Wine gave his report to the commissioners. The first topic he spoke on was the SW Nebraska Juvenile Services application which is due by the end of the year.

The next topic is he awaiting contact from the OTIS elevator company on the requested changes to the service and repair contracts. Lastly, there is a long-term inmate that has been awaiting a competency assessment that will begin said assessment soon.

Sheriff KC Bang was next with his report for the commissioners. He introduced Deputy Gillian Fell to the commissioners. She is training this week and will be sworn in next week. She has been working in the Communication Center as a dispatcher and will remain cross-trained. Sheriff Bang said his department has been busy with calls. He also stated that the new deputy pickup has arrived and is being outfitted.

Brandon Myers gave the quarterly report for Region 51 Emergency Management. He went over the grant funds that have been received and sent out to the counties. The grant for replacing the siren in Max has been received and work should be starting on that project soon. Mr. Myers also went over the meetings, conferences, and activities attended by the employees of Region 51.

With no further business, there was a motion made by Commissioner Keiser to adjourn the meeting at 10:49 am, seconded by Chairman Tecker. Ayes: Unanimous. The next meeting is scheduled for November 16, 2026, at 8:30 A.M. in the Commissioners Room.

These minutes are not the official record and may be corrected. A copy of the approved minutes is available to The Public in the Dundy County Clerk's Office. Any resolutions contained herein are available for viewing at the Dundy County Clerk's Office.
